

Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph Chapel Window booklet now available!

“Divine Light: The Story of the Windows and Appointments of the Motherhouse Chapel of the Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph” is available for sale at Mount Saint Joseph.

The 48-page booklet details the story behind each of the beautiful windows in the Motherhouse Chapel, including background on the saints pictured, the significance of their actions that are depicted, the meaning of religious symbols used, and information on the people who made the windows possible. It also includes information on the appointments in the chapel, such as the altar, baptismal font, Stations of the Cross, etc.

“Divine Light” was researched and written by Sister Annalita Lancaster, OSU, a former superior of the congregation and an Ursuline Sister for 66 years. She continues to volunteer her time in the community Archives office with Sister Vickie Cravens, where much of the research was done.

“Divine Light” is available for $10 (tax included), and can be purchased through the Archives office by contacting Sister Vickie Cravens at (270) 229-4103, ext. 302; via e-mail at archives@maplemount.org or in person at Saint Michael Hall on the Motherhouse campus, 8001 Cummings Road, Maple Mount, KY, just off Ky. 56.
