

Name: Vivian Bowles, OSU

Hometown: Jeffersontown, Ky.

Entrance Date: Sept. 7, 1957

Temporal Profession: Aug. 15, 1960

Final Profession: Aug. 15, 1963

Educational background: B.A. in English and Social Studies, M.A. in Counseling and Education, Ed.S. in Student Personnel Services in Higher Education, and Ed.D. in Counselor Education and Marriage and Family Therapy Education.

Ministry Background: Teacher, assistant principal, professor, counselor, director of counseling center, therapist, councilor on the Ursuline Leadership Team, president of Brescia University, and director of St. Mary school system.

Interests and Hobbies: Role of women religious in today's world politics related to justice and poverty issues, also reading, boating, swimming, and cooking.

Favorite book or author: Tony Hillerman.

Favorite movie: Lion in Winter, Fried Green Tomatoes, My Big Fat Greek Wedding.

Favorite Scripture passage: "Be not afraid, I go before you always."

Favorite quote of Angela: "Be full of trust, courage and high hope."

What attracted me to the Ursuline Sisters:
The charism and counsels of St. Angela Merici and the loving example of the Ursuline Sisters who taught me.

